

Strengthening Comprehension, Research and Writing

EBSCO's reliable full-text resources help students to develop critical reading, writing and research skills while exploring classic and contemporary fiction, nonfiction, poetry and drama.

For High Schools

Literary Reference Source Plus

Containing information on thousands of authors and their works across literary disciplines and eras, this database offers a complete foundation of literary reference works to support teaching and learning. Content includes the Critical Insights series, full text for classic novels, literary journals and magazines, author biographies and interviews, essays of literary criticism, infographics and much more.

Poetry & Short Story Reference Source

This historically rich collection contains hundreds of thousands of classic and contemporary poems as well as short stories, poet biographies, authoritative essays and reference books on poetic forms, movements and techniques. Listen to audio recordings of poets reading their own works and podcasts from The Poetry Foundation. The database also includes infographics, teaching guides and lesson plans.

Flipster

EBSCO's digital newsstand provides students and educators with easy access to hundreds of magazines — in school or at home, from any computer or mobile device. Support reading, writing, literature and language arts curricula with magazines such as Poetry, Prairie Fire, Horn Book Magazine and more.

EBSCO eBooks

Lighten the physical load for your students with mobile-friendly e-books. Relevant collections include the eBook High School Collection, the Literary Criticism Collection (series of five), Core Collections Recommended K-12 Titles, Classics as Graphic Novels and Lexile® Leveled Titles Collection. Also ask about our EBSCO eClassics, a free e-book collection of 25 famous works by Dickens, Austen, Melville, Twain and more.

Advanced Placement Source

Covering a wide array of subject areas, including literature and writing, this database offers students the essential research materials to achieve academic success in honors, AP or International Baccalaureate programs. It is the only AP-focused multidisciplinary product on the market.

MAS Complete

Find hundreds of high school reference books, journals and magazines, including African American Review, American Poetry Review, The New Yorker, Teen Ink and World Literature Today. Available in the Complete Online Package or on its own, MAS Complete also offers biographies, primary sources and images.

For High Schools, Continued

MLA International Bibliography with Full Text

This database combines the definitive index for the study of language, literature, linguistics, rhetoric and composition, folklore, film and teaching with an extensive collection of full text. Journals with full text include Modern Fiction Studies, Studies in Short Fiction and Studies in American Fiction.

PrepSTEP for High Schools

This dynamic web-based platform from EBSCO LearningExpress® offers interactive resources for academic skill-building, such as tutorials, practice tests, e-books, articles and flashcards. The English Language Arts Skills Center includes reading, writing and language skills content, as well as AP® and SAT® test prep.

For Middle & High Schools

Middle Search Plus

Available as part of the Middle Online Package or on its own, Middle Search Plus contains biographies, primary sources, reference books and a large image collection. Magazines focused on literature and writing include Stone Soup, Scholastic Scope, Skipping Stones and KidSpirit Magazine.

Primary Search

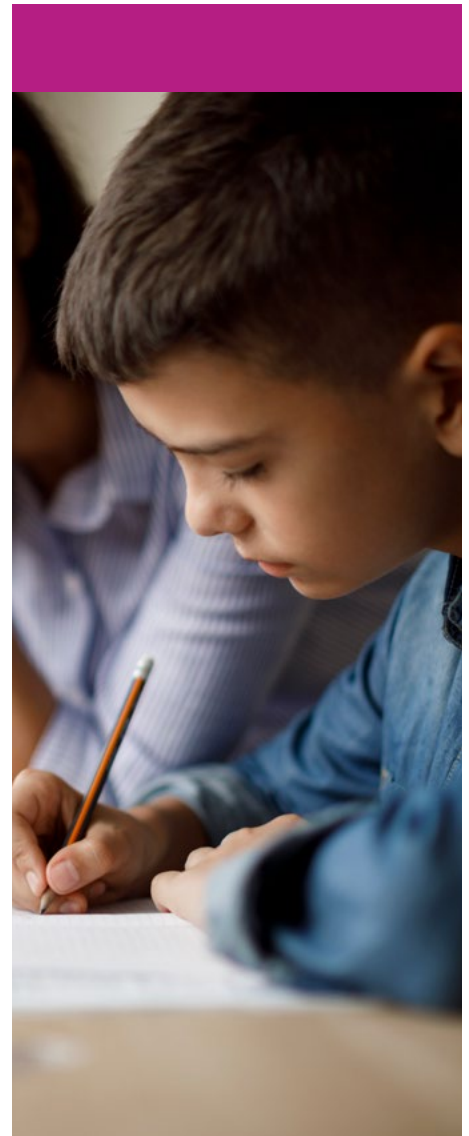

Available as part of the Primary Online Package or on its own, this database contains popular children's magazines, easy-to-read encyclopedic entries and a vast image collection. Magazines focused on literature and writing include Highlights and Storyworks.

EBSCO eBooks

The eBook K-8 Collection offers a cost-effective way for libraries to provide educators with full-text e-book coverage to support school curricula across all subject areas. The eBook Cricket Media Collection offers award-winning content for students in grades K-8.

Flipster

Support middle school literature and language arts curricula with award-winning digital magazines from Cricket Media — such as Cricket and Spider — and their supplemental teacher's guides.

Learn more about our solutions for school libraries.

Download the guide.