

The courses library staff really need to connect with their readers and their community.

With a subscription to Learn with NoveList Plus, your staff get quality, expert training in readers' advisory and library promotions.

What we hear:

"It seems like we're in a constant state of re-hiring and needing to train our new hires."

How Learn with NoveList helps:

Anyone on staff can benefit from training through the subscription to Learn with NoveList Plus. New hires can be added at any time.

"It's impossible to get our staff together at the same time to attend professional development training."

Flexible, self-paced learning that staff can do on their own schedules is part of what makes Learn with NoveList Plus such a good option.

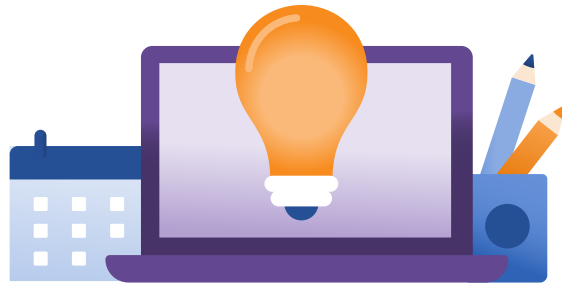

"Staff need cross-training and upskilling opportunities to build their confidence and capacity."

There's always something new to learn in the subscription. From genre training, to promoting your library, to merchandising your collection, and more.

Included in every Learn with NoveList Plus subscription:

- Courses from trusted experts with extensive, real-world library experience.
- Training that is always available to match the relentless professional development needs of staff.
- Dynamic virtual live sessions with Q&A and interaction with other learners.
- Ongoing access to new courses and exclusive course content.
- Ability to enroll learners in courses, view progress, and download stats on demand.

Your staff deserve training from the best

Learn with NovelList offers a chance to take classes created and taught by professionals who:

1. Deeply understand books
2. Know how to effectively work with readers
3. Have extensive library experience
4. Are knowledgeable about what works

The Learn with NovelList difference

- Learn with NovelList instructors are experts in their fields and include current and previous librarians with decades of experience.
- Our team is dedicated to working alongside libraries to transform lives through reading. For 30 years, we've been listening to our fellow library workers, learning about their needs and the challenges they face, and developing innovative solutions.

Also available: Live Group Workshops

The perfect complement to your subscription or for in-person or virtual staff development days, meetings, retreats, pre-conference and conference sessions, and more. Schedule a free consultation to learn more.

The Readers' Advisory Foundations course was engaging and lively, thanks to the interactive content. Everyone we worked with at NovelList was helpful, caring, and knowledgeable, and we really appreciate the work they put into this course. Staff came away saying they couldn't wait to put their new RA skills to practical use with library patrons.
