

History Reference Source

Discover the past with EBSCO's most complete history database

History Reference Source contains thousands of reliable resources — including primary source documents, biographies, photos, maps and videos — to help you complete your research.

- Search articles by keyword or browse by topic category.
- Limit search results to articles that match your reading level.
- Hear HTML and PDF articles read aloud with the Text-to-Speech feature.
- Save articles to your Google Drive or Microsoft OneDrive folder.
- Use the citation tool to properly cite sources in your research.

U.S. History subjects include:

Native Americans
Slave Trade
American Revolution
Manifest Destiny
Civil War
World War I
The Great Depression
World War II
Cold War
War on Terror

World History subjects include:

Mayan Civilization
Ancient Egypt
Ancient Greece
Middle Ages
The Crusades
Ottoman Empire
Qin Dynasty
The Renaissance
The French Revolution
Arab Spring

History Reference Source offers additional support for educators.

- Use EBSCO's Curriculum Standards Module to correlate content quickly and easily to national, state, or provincial curriculum standards.
- Share articles to Google Classroom or your school's LMS.