Poetry & Short Story Reference Source

A historically rich collection of poems, short stories, biographies and reference works from the finest publishers and literary journals

Poetry & Short Story Reference Source allows users to browse content by categories such as authors, works, literary periods and movements.

In addition to poems and short stories, the database includes plays and speeches, classic books, biographies, critical analyses, contextual essays and explications for important works, and essays on literary forms, styles and techniques.

Available through
Explora

Quality Content

Poetry & Short Story Reference Source includes content from high-quality publishers such as Knopf, Houghton Mifflin, New Directions and Copper Canyon Press as well as dozens of authors and estates.

- More than 400,000 full-text poems, both classic and contemporary

- More than 57,000 full-text short stories, both classic and contemporary

- More than 4,100 full-text dramatic works

- More than 2,800 audio recordings of poets reading their own works from Academy of American Poets, poets reading works of other poets and podcasts from The Poetry Foundation

- High-quality videos provided by Academy of American Poets

- More than 430 explications of both classic and contemporary poems

- More than 1,150 e-books focused on poetry, drama and short stories

- Poetry showcases from The Paris Review highlighting current and emerging writers and their works

Support for Students and Educators

- Lesson plans aligned to NCTE and Common Core curriculum standards

- Infographics depicting short story plot points and poetry word clouds

- Text-to-Speech for HTML and PDF articles to assist struggling readers, auditory learners and those developing English-language proficiency

- Citation tool to help students format references

- Lexile Range filter to help find articles that match students' reading ability and address text complexity requirements

- Literary glossary